

Morton Logger's Jubilee

Dan & Nema Mortensen
POB 208/349 Kosmos Lane
Morton, WA 98356

Greetings,

From August 6th through the 9th, 2026 the town of Morton will again be hosting thousands of people at its annual 83th Logger's Jubilee Celebration.

Saturday will be the parade day and as such will host the floats, musical groups, and marching groups as well as showcasing the logging trucks, and heavy equipment/construction vehicles that continue to help maintain East Lewis County's economy.

So for this Event, Saturday, August 8th, 2026 Our Theme will Be: “ Celebrating 250 Years of America”.

So lets show off our Trucks, and double our entries in 2026!!

We are extending an Invitation to you to share in the excitement and fun of this celebration, and to consider placing an entry in the parade. Enclosed is an entry form and a description sheet for your entry. Incomplete Applications will not be Judged. Please return the entry form by July 25th to my address: PO BOX 208, Morton, Washington 98356

You will then receive during the first week of August a reply from us which will include your Parade Number, line-up details, and a Parade map.

Come Out and Enjoy another Exciting Day as we Celebrate “83” years at our Morton Jubilee Parade. We Look forward to seeing all of you .

Let's make this Parade the biggest and BEST parade , showing off our Red, White, & Blue Celebration in America.

Very truly yours,
Nema Mortensen, Parade Chairman
